

(Example: Magician).

8. In any vocal category, instrumental accompaniment by the persons in the act or others is allowed, but must assume the pure character of accompaniment. The test will be whether the performance would stand alone if the accompaniment was removed.

9. In an instrumental solo, accompaniment is allowed, but must assume the pure character of accompaniment. No instruments of the same nature may be used for accompaniment. The test will be whether the performance would stand alone if the accompaniment was removed.

10. No voice, voices, record or tape with vocal utterances may be used for accompaniment by contestants with vocal talents.

11. There must be no taps or tap effect on a taped recording used by a dancer.

12. In any dance talent, accompanists are permitted on stage, but must not assume visual importance in the performance.

13. In any act, all persons assuming visual importance in the act must meet the age qualifications of the Youth Talent Contest. (See Rule #1).
